Humanity & Health Foundation (HHF)

Global Governance Structure Framework

February 2026

1. Purpose

This document outlines the governance structure of Humanity & Health Foundation (HHF). It defines leadership roles, accountability mechanisms, and decision-making pathways supporting the organization's global programs and partnerships.

2. Governance Structure Overview

Board of Directors
|
Executive Director / Global Leadership
|
Global Advisory Council
|
Country Program Leadership
|
Regional Coordinators
|
Community Project Leaders & Volunteers

3. Board of Directors

- Provide strategic oversight and governance
- Approve organizational policies and long-term strategy
- Support fundraising and partnership development
- Ensure financial accountability and compliance

4. Executive Leadership

- Lead the organization's strategy and program direction
- Oversee operational management and program implementation
- Develop partnerships with foundations, institutions, and donors
- Ensure alignment across country programs

5. Global Advisory Council

The Global Advisory Council provides strategic guidance to HHF leadership. Members may include experts in public health, sustainability, policy, academia, and international development.

6. Country Program Leadership

- Implement HHF programs within the country
- Develop partnerships with local organizations
- Coordinate volunteers and regional teams
- Report program outcomes to headquarters

7. Regional Coordinators

- Support program implementation across multiple communities
- Provide operational support to project leaders
- Monitor project progress and reporting

8. Community Project Leaders & Volunteers

- Implement local outreach programs
- Engage community members
- Support awareness campaigns and educational activities

9. Accountability and Reporting

Country programs submit reports to headquarters through structured monitoring and evaluation processes. The Board receives periodic updates on organizational strategy, financial health, and program impact.

10. Conclusion

The HHF governance structure ensures that the organization maintains strong oversight, accountability, and strategic alignment while expanding its programs globally.